LINCOLN HIGH SCHOOL
MIDLAND, PENNSYLVANIA

Dedication

In a student's years in school, he meets many teachers, but only a few remain outstanding in his memory. Only a teacher who possesses warmth, understanding, and a love of human beings and his work can truly impress his students. Such a teacher is Mr. Lawrence Novak, director of the art department.

Mr. Novak has given much to Lincoln High School through the field of art. His students have won fame for themselves and for Lincoln High by winning local, state, and national awards. Because of his ability to transfer his love of art to his students, Mr. Novak will long be respected by the faculty and students of Lincoln High School.

Dear Readers:

The members of the Rodis staff realize that the years we spend in school are among the best years of our lives. Each year is very special, and so, we have tried to capture in this book the events of one year. From the first hectic day of school to Commencement, from the first touchdown to the last homerun, from Senior Day to the school picnic, the life of Lincoln High School in 1966 can be found among the pages.

We hope that as you read this book, and glance at its pages, you may recall This Was The Year That Was.

Sincerely,

The Rodis Staff

Superintendent

TO THE GRADUATES:

The great end of education is to train the mind to use its own powers rather than to fill it with the accumulations of others.

It is not where we are but where we want to go that determines the route we choose. Not what we are, but what we want to be that provides the individual with greatness and valor. Before the sun sets on another day these two decisions should consume your thoughts, and your answers will guide you well in the years ahead.

The completely educated person is no more, but rather, one needs to look upon our need for continuous education in order to find a better way of life. Choose the right, resist temptation, rely on truth, virtue and God.

May our efforts to plant the seed of learning, and your desire to cultivate it into a way of life, bring you success through the fullness of life.

Edgar E. Richards

High School Principal

TO THE GRADUATES:

For youth, life ahead with its triumphs and its disappointments, its joys, its sorrows, its hopes, its fears and its dreams—and its lack of vision and purpose and its sheeplike conformity.

From today's youth must come tomorrow's teachers, executives, judges, statesmen, lawyers, scientists, inventors, surgeons, doctors, businessmen, ministers—tomorrow's successes and leaders.

From the youth of today will also come tomorrow's mentally ill, tomorrow's poor, tomorrow's criminals, tomorrow's broken homes and tomorrow's failures.

What is to come, for good or ill, already lies in the eyes of youth. If these eyes remain fixed only on the immediate, our future is a dull one indeed. But as they lift to a point beyond the horizon, that future glows with the colors of infinite possibility.

RESCUE ME!

The Battling Leopards

Break it up boys, here comes the ref!

After a taste of victory, the Leopards stumbled twice on the road to a championship team. Then they recovered their spirits and scratched the Burgettstown Blue Devils from the W.P.I.A.L. class A race. However, their momentum slacked and Monaca's and Rochester's teams became road blocks on the Leopards' path to victory.

The battling Leopards were on the highway to victory when they grabbed the Braddock Tigers by their tails and trounced them 39-7. In the final exhibitions, the New Brighton Lions proved to be too tough for the Leopards as they came from behind to beat Midland 13-9. But the Leopards showed that they still had some fight in when they clawed their way to victory in their last gridiron performance of the season.

For Giving That

No one worked harder for our Prom than our class sponsor, MISS CAROL MARTIN. For that and for her continued labor as head senior sponsor, she has earned our respect and gratitude.

MISS EUGENIA O'HARA has done much to further girls athletics in LHS. From the participants in the girls' tournaments, in the Girls' Leaders Club, and in the gym exhibitions, thank you for your help.

. . . Our Extra

The Class of 1966 would like to thank MR. WILLIAM HOCKMAN for the help he has been during our years at LHS. As our class sponsor and the head of the Math Department, he has been a good friend and an excellent teacher.

"A friend to all" describes MISS MARIE MILANOVICH perfectly. Few members of our class have not been helped by her in some way. For her numerous field trips, her work with the Finance Comm., and her sponsorship of the National Honor Society, she is deeply appreciated.

Extra Something . . .

Although she is rarely seen in the halls, MRS. OLIVE DEFFENBAUGH works wonders in her organ studio in the auditorium. Under her direction, the organ students perform for many school and community affairs, and she has increased music appreciation through a "Music for Relaxation" assembly series. Thank you, Mrs. D., for your efforts.

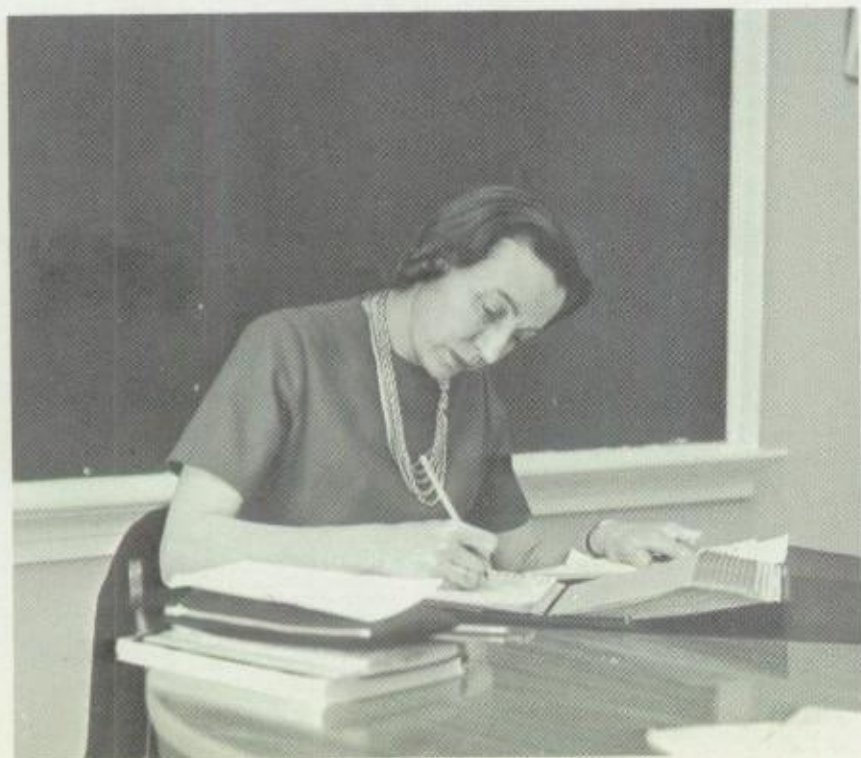

Every member of our class has been touched by the music of MR. C. LLOYD DEFFENBAUGH, and the faculty and student body have been entertained many times through his efforts. Thank you so much, Mr. D., for your work with the senior choir and for filling the halls of LHS with music.

Special Thanks

Without the efforts of MR. FRANCIS LAMBERSON, there would be no 1966 RODIS. He has given much of his time to make this book a reality, and the RODIS Staff is very grateful for his interest and his friendship.

MRS. DOROTHY SHOVLIN has found the time to be one of our class sponsors, the sponsor of the Busi-C's, the SPOTLIGHT, and the Concession Squad, as well as head the Commercial Department.

The Senior Class would like to thank her for the work she has done for us and for her friendship.

The Midland Leopards reluctantly gave up their Section 8, W.P.I.A.L., and state crowns this year. Fighting through a tough exhibition schedule, the Blue and Gold fell four times. Beaver Falls was the first team to turn the tables on the battling Leopards 56-53; and two other teams, Schenley and Altoona, avenged tournament losses to the Leopards last year. The Uniontown Red Raiders dominated the Midland Holiday Tournament, and was the other team to beat Midland in exhibition play. However, everything was not all bad, for the Leopards had some big victories. They defeated McKeesport, this year's champion of Section 6; Freedom, champion of Section 14; long-time rival, East Liverpool, and last year's Class B state champion, Coraopolis.

When Section play finally rolled around, Midland, along with Monaca and Hopewell, were touted as contenders for Section 8 honors. After the first nights of competition, expectations seemed to come true. Midland defeated Western Beaver and Hopewell, which set the stage for the showdown with Monaca. Monaca got the breaks and won a hard fought game, 39-38. After the loss, they rolled over Beaver, New Brighton, Western Beaver, and Hopewell. The Leopard's season closed with two victories. Although they did not come out on top, the 1966 Leopards will long be remembered for their perseverance, their determination, and their good sportsmanship.

Holiday

Diane Demoratz, one of the two Midland candidates, receives her trophy from the reigning queen, Kathy Rehanik.

At the right is an informal photo of the Queen and her court taken after the crowning in the gym.

Below is the formal photograph of the Queen and her court.

Linda Zahndt, the second Midland candidate, received her trophy.

The Queen, her court, and their sponsor are, from left to right: Renee Cumberledge of New Castle, second runner-up; Kathy Rehanik of Uniontown, Tournament Queen; and Sue Doty of McKeesport, first runner-up, STANDING FROM LEFT TO RIGHT are: Mrs. John Shovlin, sponsor, Linda Zarhndt of Midland, Carol Doty of McKeesport, Diane Demoratz of Midland, Patricia Lori Whitlock of Uniontown, and Marietta Marino of New Castle.

The third year of the Holiday Tournament was successfully launched on Wednesday, December 29, 1965, with a "chat and chew" informal luncheon at the luxurious Willows Motel. Here the girls, including the Midland delegates—Diane Demoratz and Linda Zarhndt, were provided quarters for the two-day event. The Midland cheerleaders chose to act as hostesses, with Mrs. John F. Shovlin III as sponsor and advisor for the visiting group.

During the half-time period Wednesday, December 29, the judges announced the new Tournament Queen, Kathy Rehanik of Uniontown. Patty Doyle, last year's Queen and a graduate of Midland High School, crowned the Queen. The first runner-up, Sue Doty of McKeesport, and the second runner-up, Renee Cumberledge of New Castle, were also announced. That evening the Queen and her court, for whom escorts had been provided, were presented at the Hi-Spot by Mary Ellen Bruno, Midland's head cheerleader.

On Thursday afternoon the Crucible Steel Company entertained the group with a tour of the mill and a superb buffet luncheon at their private dining room. In the evening, at the end of the Tournament games, the Queen and her court received trophies. The Queen presented trophies to the winning team of Uniontown and to the winning cheerleaders, also of Uniontown.

The events came to a close with a most enjoyable banquet at the Willows Motel. An excellent hypnotist engendered great enthusiasm in the group by making them take part in his acts. With such exciting events, one can see that the participants in the Holiday Tournament of 1965 were literally hypnotized with the chain of events provided them.

On December 18, 1965, the Christmas Band Party was held in the forum of the high school. Lynn Gruber was crowned Band Queen by Carol Matteo, the 1964 Band Queen. Michael Bailey, who is also band president and senior conductor, was elected Band King. The attendants, Jo Gornak and Debbie Vigneovich, received gifts. Ronald White and James Fantone were the male members of the court. The King, Queen, and the court were chosen by a secret ballot of the band members.

During the evening's festivities, the band seniors were awarded jackets by the Band Boosters in recognition of their service to the band. Mike Bailey presented Mr. Fleming with a sport jacket on behalf of the band members.

TRACK 1966

The 1966 Track team had its ups and downs this year. In spite of the cold weather, the team came up with three dual-meet victories and one win in a triangular meet. The 880 yard relay team made up of D. VanLier, J. Smith, L. Walker, and J. Williams clocked the fastest time of any team in Beaver County at 1:35. The one mile relay team took first place in the County meet. The Midland Invitational Meet was very successful this year. Seven teams competed. Twelve members of our team qualified for the Class B Championship Meet. They competed in the 2 mile relay, 100 and 200 yard dashes, 1 mile relay, 440 yard dash, and the discus.

Gym Exhibition

Kathy Cacic and Becky Liberatore, two junior high students, are shown performing a double stunt on the parallel bars.

On April 19, 1966, under the supervision of Miss Eugenia O'Hara and Mr. Charles Polce, a preview of the gym exhibition was presented to the student body. A public performance was given on April 20. Both senior and junior high students participated in the marching drill, calisthenics, tumbling, and stunts on such apparatus as the parallel bars, the horizontal bar, the rings, and the horse.

Mary Ellen Bruno, a senior, is about to do a shoulder stand on the uneven parallel bars.

Dennis Bradshaw, a senior, is shown coming out of a dislocation on the rings.

At right are the junior high boys, performing a pyramid on the ropes.

Junior-Senior Prom

Al Monaco, Senior class president, escorts his date through the archway.

Enchantment followed close upon the awe and beauty of the gym on the night of the Junior-Senior Prom, May 20, 1966. The long and arduous task of decorating was forgotten in the beauty of "Some Enchanted Evening". Even the mint green and yellow colors took on a new note, and the wishing well in the center of the floor was the focal point towards which the couples danced to the music of the Vanguards.

The festivities continued with the post-prom party at the United Steelworkers' building where the promenaders danced to Carl Banks, the disc jockey, with entertainment presented by George Goodman and the Headliners and the Pharoahs. A most satisfying meal fortified the couples to continue dancing until 5:00 A.M. when the "Enchanted Evening" came to a close.

"I wish ... I wish this Enchanted Evening lasts forever."

"It's our turn next to try the garden bench."

"Some Enchanted Evening"

Everyone is working hard to transform the new gym into a dreamland. This is the first dance ever held on the new gym floor.

"We're just beginning! There goes another streamer! Can this be done?"

The mothers did their part and more to make the Post-Prom enjoyable. And it was!

Some are working, some are directing, and some just "are"! However, we did complete it on time.
